Students:

Having trouble affording groceries?

SNAP may be able to help!

SNAP provides monthly benefits on an EBT card that you can use to buy food at grocery stores, farmers markets, and other locations. Low-income students between the ages of 18 and 49 who are enrolled half-time or more in higher education may be eligible if they meet any of the following:

- Work at least 20 hours per week
- Have a disability
- Have a child under 12
- In a state or federally funded work study program
- Enrolled half-time or more in a career or technical certificate/associate degree program (e.g. HVAC Associate Degree Program)
- Participate in an on-the-job training program, work incentive program, or Employment and Training Program (E&T)

Students who are enrolled less than half-time or who are 17 or younger OR 50 or older are not considered students for SNAP purposes.

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) Nondiscrimination Statement:

In accordance with federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), religious creed, disability, age, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity.

Program information may be made available in languages other than English. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication to obtain program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language), should contact the agency (state or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339.

To file a program discrimination complaint, a Complainant should complete a Form AD-3027, USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form which can be obtained online at: https://www.usda.gov/sites/default/files/documents/ad-3027.pdf, from any USDA office, by calling (866) 632-9992, or by writing a letter addressed to USDA. The letter must contain the complainant's name, address, telephone number, and a written description of the alleged discriminatory action in sufficient detail to inform the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights (ASCR) about the nature and date of an alleged civil rights violation. The completed AD-3027 form or letter must be submitted to:

1. mail:
   Food and Nutrition Service, USDA
   1320 Braddock Place, Room 334
